The Young Artist Seminar Concerto Competition will be held on Saturday, July 3 at Rocky Ridge Music Center. It is open to all students accepted into the Young Artist Seminar Program. Up to two winners may be selected to perform on either Saturday, July 17 or July 31 orchestra concerts.

Contestants may audition on any solo work with orchestral accompaniment that has been approved in advance by RRMC. Students must submit proposed repertoire selection by May 15 or earlier for approval. RRMC will approve proposed repertoire based on music availability, cost, instrumentation, and feasibility, given the limited rehearsal schedule. Selections should not exceed 15 minutes in length.
